

REWRITING
THE SENTENCE

SUMMIT ON ALTERNATIVES TO INCARCERATION

JUNE 17-18, 2019

Hosted in New York City by COLUMBIA LAW SCHOOL & THE ALEPH INSTITUTE

JOIN US TO REWRITE OUR NATION'S CRIMINAL JUSTICE LEGACY

Following the acclaimed ASKS Summit of 2016, Rewriting the Sentence will define and foster the cultural and political shift in sentencing practices toward broader use of alternatives to incarceration. Please join judges, prosecutors, lawmakers, defense attorneys, advocates, and other key stakeholders for this critical convening.

ACCLAIM FOR ALEPH'S PRIOR 2016 ALTERNATIVE SENTENCING KEY STAKEHOLDER SUMMIT:

"I thought the summit was worthwhile for any judge that sits on a criminal calendar. Each session was very thought provoking. Thank you to those at the Institute for being great hosts."

HON. MARK A. VIOLANTE
Chief Judge, City Court of Niagara Falls, New York

"Thanks ever so much to you and your colleagues for an amazing two days of rich discussions. You covered, very effectively, an array of issues related to alternatives and sentencing reforms. Thanks again to all at Aleph. It was an amazing conference!"

MARY ADELE GREER
Senior Criminal Law Advisor, ABA Rule of Law Initiative

"Reform efforts such as those discussed at the summit can provide prosecutors and judges with greater flexibility and more tools to address the facts of individual cases, seeking to serve the twin goals of punishment and deterrence while also serving society's compelling interest in the rehabilitation of individuals."

HON. EMMET SULLIVAN
U.S. District Judge for the District of Columbia

"The ASKS Summit was an important step in our country's journey towards reducing both crime and incarceration. The bipartisan nature of the event drives home that both left and right see the need to work together now to reform our criminal justice system."

HON. TIM PURDON
former U.S. Attorney for the District of North Dakota
